Nature of work description

Nature of work - Charity (Local)

Description of processing

The following is a broad description of the way this organisation/data controller processes personal information. To understand how your own personal information is processed you may need to refer to any personal communications you have received, check any privacy notices the organisation has provided or contact the organisation to ask about your personal circumstances.

Reasons/purposes for processing information

We process personal information to enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution; administer membership records; to fundraise and promote the interests of the charity; manage our employees and volunteers; maintain our own accounts and records.

We gather contact details from individuals and businesses as part of the registration process for the fundraising events we produce. We do not take or hold payment details online. Online payments are processed by diverting the user to a secure 3rd party payment processor (Paypal).

Type/classes of information processed

We process information relevant to the above reasons/purposes. This may include:

- personal details
- family detail
- membership details
- goods and services

Who the information is processed about

- Members of the public attending our events
- Corporate sponsors
- Businesses or trades people offering services at our events

We process personal information about:

- members
- staff, volunteers
- trustees
- complainants, supporters
- enquirers
- advisers and representatives of other organisations

Who the information may be shared with

We sometimes need to share the personal information we process with the individual themselves and also with other organisations. Where this is necessary we are required to comply with all aspects of the Data Protection Act (DPA). What follows is a description of the types of organisations we may need to share some of the personal information we process with for one or more reasons.

Where necessary or required we share information with:

- members
- family, associates or representatives of the person whose personal data we are processing
- survey or research organisations
- business associates and professional advisers
- providers of goods and services
- local and central government
- other voluntary and charitable organisations

Transfers

It may sometimes be necessary to transfer personal information overseas. When this is needed information is only shared within the European Economic Area (EEA). Any transfers made will be in full compliance with all aspects of the data protection act.
